

Frances Hollis Brain Foundation Fund 2019 Guidelines

Overview

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION FOR GREATER ATLANTA

Since 1951, the Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta has been connecting the passions of philanthropists with the purposes of nonprofits doing that work. With nearly 70 years serving the 23-county Atlanta region and a robust team of experts, the Community Foundation leads and inspires philanthropy to increase the vitality of our region and the well-being of all residents, empowering our donors to focus on the joy of giving. The Community Foundation is a top-20 community foundation, among 750 nationally, with approximately $1.1 billion in current assets and is Georgia's second largest foundation. Through its quality donor services and bold, innovative leadership on community issues, the Foundation received more than $144 million from donors in 2017 and distributed more than $100 million that same year to support nonprofits throughout the region and beyond. For more information, visit: cfgreateratlanta.org or connect with the Foundation via Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.

At the Community Foundation, we believe in the power and potential of individuals and organizations to change communities, whether those communities are physical neighborhoods, a group of individuals with a common interest or a cohort of organizations focused on similar issues. We play a variety of roles, but our key goal is to be the connecting point for the various partners, nonprofit organizations and community leaders working together toward the common vision of stronger greater Atlanta region.

ABOUT THE FRANCES HOLLIS BRAIN FOUNDATION FUND

Inspired by the lifetime legacy of giving of David and Frances Brain, the Frances Hollis Brain Foundation Fund of the Community Foundation for Greater Atlanta supports nonprofits that benefit vulnerable and underserved communities. The Fund addresses primary needs – food, shelter, clothing, education and healthcare – to enhance the well-being of individuals and families living in metro Atlanta, with priority given to organizations working in Cobb, DeKalb, Fulton and Gwinnett counties.

Formerly known as the Frances Hollis Brain Foundation, the Fund also continues to further its mission in Kentucky at the Blue Grass Community Foundation and in Maine at the Maine Community Foundation.

Grant awards are made based on a number of factors, including those outlined on page two of these guidelines. Grants will range from $5,000-$10,000 for each 12-month period. Each grantee will be asked to report on progress and challenges at the end of the grant period.

ABOUT DAVID AND FRANCES HOLLIS BRAIN

Married for 68 years, David Brain and Frances Hollis Brain were high school sweethearts from Cleveland, Ohio. During their life together, their love, support and care for each other was obvious to everyone they met and they prized a balance of family, community, church and self. Their family lived in Baltimore, Boston and Kentucky, but a common thread was always the spirit of giving. They believed that those who are blessed with resources have a responsibility to share them with those who are less fortunate.

David and Frances created the Frances Hollis Brain Foundation in 1993 as a tangible expression of their values and to encourage future generations of the family to make a difference through philanthropy. Frances passed away in 2012 and David joined her in 2016. The foundation transitioned to become the Frances Hollis Brain Foundation Fund as a celebration of their legacy of giving.

Questions/Answers

How are organizations evaluated?

Priority will be given to organizations that:

- Submit applications reflecting organization-wide planning and decision-making;
- Follow the application instructions and guidelines carefully (including character limits);
- Have a clear and articulated vision for implementation and success;
- Demonstrate a high value for diversity in all forms;
- Exhibit strong financial management;
- Are continually updating plans and programs to reflect the current economy and community needs;
- Budget, evaluate and have stated goals for the program requesting support; and
- Partner with others for organizational efficiency.

In addition, when evaluating a proposal, Foundation staff and the Frances Hollis Brain Foundation Fund trustees consider the following questions:

- Does the project or program align with the stated grantmaking priorities and fields of interest for the Frances Hollis Brain Foundation Fund?
- What are the strengths and challenges related to the proposal? (e.g. Does it address a real need? What is the expected impact? Who will benefit? Is it well planned and doable? How will it be sustained? How will outcomes be evaluated?)
- What are the strengths and challenges related to the proposed budget? (e.g. Is the budget realistic? What are other committed and expected sources of revenue? Is the project cost-effective?)
- What are the strengths and challenges related to the organization? (e.g. Does the organization have sufficient expertise? What is the staff and board capacity? Are the finances sound? Does the organization receive broad support from the community?)
